

Title
The Statue
The Wolf and the Shepherd

LEVEL 5, ACTIVITY 4

The Statue

The story is about Julia and a statue of Sonny Grimes, a musician from long ago. It takes place in a town during the day and evening. As Julia sits in the park, the statue comes alive and sings a song she has never heard before. When he finishes, he looks like the same old statue. Later that evening Julia gasps when she hears the same song on the computer. She thought she'd been dreaming in the park.

The Wolf and the Shepherd

Day after day, a wolf visited a flock of sheep in a peaceful meadow that was being tended by a shepherd. Each day the shepherd watched the wolf carefully to make sure he did not carry away a little lamb. But day after day, the wolf only watched. It seemed as if he was helping the shepherd take care of the sheep. The shepherd grew so used to seeing the wolf that he forgot that the wolf could do harm to the flock. One day he left the flock to run an errand, and when he returned, many of the flock had been carried away. It was then that he knew how foolish he had been to trust a wolf.
